

Horae B.M.V. -

Latin manuscript on parchment. With 13 (of originally 20) miniatures, 2 bordures and lots of gilt and colored initials.

Eastern France [Besançon?], around 1470. 10,5 x 8 cm. 217 [instead of 224?] leaves. Leather binding around 1550 with gilt spine and covers, gilt edges (spine defective, closures lacking, a little rubbed. In a modern cloth cassette.

Small size book of hour in black bastarda with red captions, mostly 14 lines. - A number of saints in the calendar and the litany indicates that the manuscript was made in Besançon: Anatol, Antidius, Claudius, Donatus, Ferreolus, Gengulphus, Germanus, Nicetius and Prothadius. - 7

Koller Auktionen - Lot 576A178 Manuscripts & Autographs - Saturday 24 September 2016, 02.30 PM

leaves lacking, each with a miniature, namely the title to the hours of the holy Mary (after leaf 25), the beginning of the hour of the admiration of the holy cross (after leaf 88), the beginning of the hour of the admiration of the holy ghous (after leaf 95), the beginning of the officium of the death (after leaf 145), and also 3 leaves from the prayers of the intercession (after 175, 192 and 193). The sheets are all numbered in pencil. Some small stains, the upper outer corner of the first leaf lacking (no loss of text or image).

CHF 7 000 / 10 000

€ 7 220 / 10 310

Drabus anatholi
rex regum xpianus
regens spem nos
in die iudicii parte ponat

