

ENAMEL, GOLD AND PEARL EAR PENDANTS, 17th - 18th century.

Silver and yellow gold.

Rare earrings, each suspending a pendant in form of a polychrome enamelled caravel with golden sails and black enameled flag with white maltese-cross, joined by a dove-motif in enamel "en rond bosse", head missing, to a hoop, enhanced by applied band-motifs, gold beads, 2 pendants and small natural pearls. Enamel with slight traces of wear. L ca. 8 cm.

Comparable jewellery is known from the Benaki museum in Greece.

CHF 4 000 / 6 000

€ 4 120 / 6 190

Koller Auktionen - Lot 2092*

A181 Jewellery - Thursday 29 June 2017, 02.00 PM

