

TAZZA FROM THE "ROPSHA" SERVICE FOR TSAR NICHOLAS I. OF RUSSIA (1825-1855),

Saint Petersburg, from the period of Tsar Nicholas II. (1868-1918), dated 1898.

Decorated with an etched gold antimony border on a blue ground and with the Imperial double-eagle holding a torch and a laurel wreath in his claws. Mounted on a gilt foot. Green manufactory mark of the period of Nicholas II. 1898.

H 19 cm. Repair on the foot.

Provenance: German private collection.

CHF 6 000 / 8 000
€ 6 190 / 8 250

