

ALEXANDER CALDER

(Lawnton 1898–1976 New York City)

17" Planets. 1976.

Gouache and ink on wove paper.

Signed and dated lower right: Calder 76, as well as titled on the reverse: 17" Planets.

37.1 x 109.1 cm.

Provenance: - Artist's studio. - Fondation Maeght, Saint Paul de Vence (no. W1711). - Collection Yolanda Saul, Beverly Shores, USA. - Leslie Hindman Auctioneers, Chicago, Auction 24 September 2015, Lot 155. - Swiss private collection. - Simon Studer Art, Geneva (on the reverse with the label). - Corporate collection Switzerland. „The simplest forms in the universe are the sphere and the circle. I represent them by disks and then I vary

Koller Auktionen - Lot 3470*

A191 PostWar & Contemporary - Saturday 07 December 2019, 02.00 PM

them... spheres of different sizes, densities, colours and volumes, floating in space, traversing clouds, sprays of water, currents of air, viscosities and odours - of the greatest variety and disparity.“ Alexander Calder

CHF 40 000 / 60 000

€ 41 240 / 61 860

Koller Auktionen - Lot 3470*

A191 PostWar & Contemporary - Saturday 07 December 2019, 02.00 PM

