

SET OF 4 CANDLESTICKS

George II, London, 1742. Maker's mark Paul de Lamerie.

Each with a very finely shaped foot and baluster-shaped shaft. All of them bear a coat-of-arms engraving.

H 21.2 cm. Total weight 1,915 g. Silver 925.

The series of candlesticks described here bears the maker's mark of Paul de Lamerie (1688-1751), the most important goldsmith in England in the 18th century. Lamerie was considered one of the leading pioneers of the English Rococo style, a style he introduced from the 1730s onwards.

CHF 15 000 / 25 000

€ 15 460 / 25 770

Koller Auktionen - Lot 1611

A192 The Müller-Frei Collection - Tuesday 16 June 2020, 02.00 PM

Koller Auktionen - Lot 1611

A192 The Müller-Frei Collection - Tuesday 16 June 2020, 02.00 PM

Koller Auktionen - Lot 1611

A192 The Müller-Frei Collection - Tuesday 16 June 2020, 02.00 PM

