

Patek Philippe. Very rare "Beyer Jubilee Chronograph", 2010.

Yellow gold 750.

D 39.5 mm.

Only 50 pieces of this exclusive timepiece were produced. They commemorate the 250th anniversary of Beyer Chronometrie, the oldest watch shop, which was one of the first concessionaires of this traditional Geneva watchmaker. Beyer Chronometrie was founded in 1760 and is now in the hands of the 8th generation, headed by René Beyer. In contrast to the standard version with a black pulsometer scale, this limited series has a tachymeter scale in blue and the double-Beyer signature on the dial as well as an additional case back. Provenance: From an important
