

POWDER FLASK

German or Swiss, last quarter of the 16th century.

Stag horn body (antler-fork piece). The front smoothed and engraved, depicting a distinguished husband and wife. Original iron mounts, two caps, one cap end missing, bottle cap screwed, long nozzle with spring closure and with a spring lock at the base, four carrying rings.

L 24.8 cm.

Attractive powder flask in good original condition, cf. Ray Riling: The Powder Flask Book, 1953, pp. 238-239, Ill. 37.

CHF 1 000 / 1 500
€ 1 030 / 1 550

