

PROCESSION CROSS

Gothic, probably Burgundy, 1st half of the 15th century.

Wooden core, applied with chased silver plates, and decorated with pine cones and rosettes. Traces of a former gilding. On the front: enameled God the Father in a Gothic niche with a canopy, on the back: an empty rectangular chamber, originally for holding a relic (door missing). Mounted on a later conical shaft with a flat nodus in gilt copper. Punch mark "PVE" below a crown, and date or place stamp B.

22 x 2 x 44 cm.

Dents and losses. Door and insert of the reliquary container, missing or incomplete. Associated. Provenance: - Formerly in the Collection Leopold Kolisch,

Koller Auktionen - Lot 1003*

A198 Decorative Arts - Thursday 30 September 2021, 01.00 PM

Amsterdam. Auction Sotheby's Amsterdam, 20 December 2001. Lot No. 156. - Private property, Austria.

CHF 3 000 / 4 000

€ 2 800 / 3 740

Koller Auktionen - Lot 1003*

A198 Decorative Arts - Thursday 30 September 2021, 01.00 PM

Koller Auktionen - Lot 1003*

A198 Decorative Arts - Thursday 30 September 2021, 01.00 PM

