

SIGNIFICANT ROCOCO COMMODE

Rococo, Berne, ca. 1745/50. By Mathäus Funk (1697–1783).

Purpleheart and rosewood inlaid in rectangular reserves in veneer. Curved body on a cut-out frame and curved legs, the front legs with bronze sabots. Front with two sans-traverse drawers. Drawers with brass fluting. Opulently gilt bronze mounts designed as rocailles, blossoms and leaves. The inside lined with multicolor, marbled pasted paper. Gray/pink Oberhasli marble. 1 key.

94 × 58 × 85.5 cm.

Few losses to the veneer. Signs of use. Bronze fittings probably later. Provenance: - Christie's, Successions du Baron Fould-Springer et Cécile de Rothschild, Paris,

Koller Auktionen - Lot 1126A202 Decorative Arts - Thursday 22 September 2022, 10.00 AM

11 March 2003, Lot No. 173. - by inheritance in the present private collection, Switzerland, acquired at the above auction. Cf. Hermann von Fischer, Fonck à Berne, Berne, 2001, pp. 97 & 102 (Type G3/G6, Ills. 156 & 170).

CHF 30 000 / 35 000

€ 30 930 / 36 080

Koller Auktionen - Lot 1126

A202 Decorative Arts - Thursday 22 September 2022, 10.00 AM

Koller Auktionen - Lot 1126

A202 Decorative Arts - Thursday 22 September 2022, 10.00 AM

Koller Auktionen - Lot 1126

A202 Decorative Arts - Thursday 22 September 2022, 10.00 AM

Koller Auktionen - Lot 1126

A202 Decorative Arts - Thursday 22 September 2022, 10.00 AM

