

THE BLESSING CHRIST CHILD

Renaissance, Italy, end of the 15th or 19th century. After a model of the Christ Child giving a blessing by Desiderio da Settignano for an aumbry in the Basilica of Saint Lawrence, Florence, 1461.

White marble sculpted all-around. Depiction of the Christ Child with his right hand raised in a gesture of blessing and holding a laurel wreath with nails in his left hand. Fine modeling of the short curly hair and naturalistic depiction of the skin folds. The boy is supported by a stepped rock on a round base.

H 58 cm.
