

IRON CLOCK,

Renaissance, South Tyrol, probably Carianzi, ca. 1700.

Enclosed iron case, painted with allegorical figures, Eloquentia and Dialectica. The fronton and chapter ring painted, the center with a landscape reserve. 2 chapter rings for hours and for quarter-hours. Verge movement with balance wheel. 2 striking mechanisms, striking the 1/2-hour on 2 bells.

14x14x37 cm.

- Movement, highly cleaned - Paintwork, retouched - Movement and case from the same era, assembled later - Bell cage, later - Movement, highly cleaned

CHF 3 000 / 5 000
€ 3 090 / 5 150

TEMPORIS FILIA
VERITAS

TEMPORIS FILIA VERITAS
DIALECTICA

ELOQUENTIA
TEMPORIS FILIA
VERITAS

