NICOLAES BERCHEM

(Haarlem 1620–1683 Amsterdam)

Falconer and shepherd in a landscape.

Oil on panel.

Signed lower right: Berchem fe.

57 x 71 cm.

Provenance: - J. Duclos Collection, 1847 (label verso). - Swiss private collection. Dr. Pieter Biesboer confirmed the authenticity of the present painting on the basis of a photograph. He points to the finely worked figures, trees and mountains and dates this work of the Haarlem painter to the 1660s. Condition: Oil on panel, cradled. Paint surface well-preserved, with a fine network of craquelure. Under UV: retouchings along the edges, two horizontal, retouched hair cracks on the right. Some smaller retouchings
