

REMBRANDT BUGATTI

(1884-1916)

SCULPTURE "Jeune cerf se grattant le cou" (Young stag scratching his neck), ca. 1906.

Bronze with black patina. Young stag on a rectangular base.

Signed R. Bugatti and numbered (5). Foundry mark: Cire perdue A. A. Hebrard. H 25 cm. L 32 cm.

Rembrandt Bugatti is probably one of the most impressive sculptors of the early 20th century. His work comprises over 300 sculptures. Lit.: Rembrandt Bugatti, Catalogue raisonné, Jacques-Chalom Des Cordes, Véronique Fromanger Des Cordes, p. 135. The item on offer includes an expertise by Véronique Fromanger.

CHF 80 000 / 120 000

€ 82 470 / 123 710

