

ENAMEL PLAQUE WITH A STATION OF THE CROSS,

Limoges, probably 16th century. Monogrammed L.L. (probably Léonard Limosin, 1500-1580).

Enamel, painted with a Station of the Cross: Veronica handing Jesus the sudarium. The back with translucent counter-enamel, bands in gold over glaze, chips along edge and corners, repaired. In a partly gilt wooden frame, decorated with enamel plaques. Monogrammed L.L. Restorations.

12x16 cm.

Provenance: Swiss private collection.

CHF 500 / 650
€ 520 / 670

335180 / 223