A194 Porcelaine de la Succession Rosmarie Schmidt-Ducret - jeudi 24 septembre 2020, 14h00

RARE AUGUSTUS REX "BÖTTGER" STONEWARE PLATE

Meissen, ca. 1711.

Cut and polished, with incised, crowned AR monogram in the mirror and No. 37 and E. on the rim.

D 21.1 cm.

Surface, minimally rubbed in some areas. Provenance: - Frederick Augustus I, Elector of Saxony (1670-1733), King of Poland, Royal Collections, Dresden. Literature: Siegfried Ducret, Porzellan der europäischen Manufakturen im 18. Jahrhundert, Zurich, 1971, p. 9, Ill. 5. This rare plate was obviously intended for personal use by the King, August the Strong, as indicated by the crowned AR monogram in the mirror of the plate. It must have been part of a larger, as yet unidentified
