

SMALL BOX WITH SILVER DECORATION BETWEEN GLASS

Historicism, Paris ca. 1860, signed Normant (probably Henry Normant).

Bronze engraved with blossoms and foliage, and gilt. Rectangular body with hinged corners. The corners set with small bronze figures in niches, standing on the projecting scrolled feet. Curved handle. The walls and the lid are double-glazed, and in-between the glass panes are engraved and pierced decorations in silver, featuring depictions of instrument-shaped medallions surrounded by opulent vines; the decoration in the lid features a couple in a landscape, the one in the front features peasants. 1 key.

18.5 x 9.5 x 13.5 cm.
