

SECRETAIRE "A ABATTANT",

Louis XV, Paris, 18th century. Bears a signature: GARNIER, and a guild stamp.

Purpleheart and tulipwood, in veneer and inlaid in reserves and fillets. Slightly curved body and curved legs. Hinged writing surface over double-doors. The writing surface, lined with brown leather, opening up into 9 drawers and 3 compartments. Bronze mounts, later. Red/grey speckled marble top. 1 key.

95x40x121 cm.

- Fine cracks - Marquetry, in part later - Chips

CHF 3 000 / 5 000
€ 3 090 / 5 150

