

IRVING PENN

(Plainfield 1917–2009 New York City)

André Derain, 1948.

Toned gelatin silver print. Vintage. Fix mounted on cardboard support.

32 × 24.5 cm.

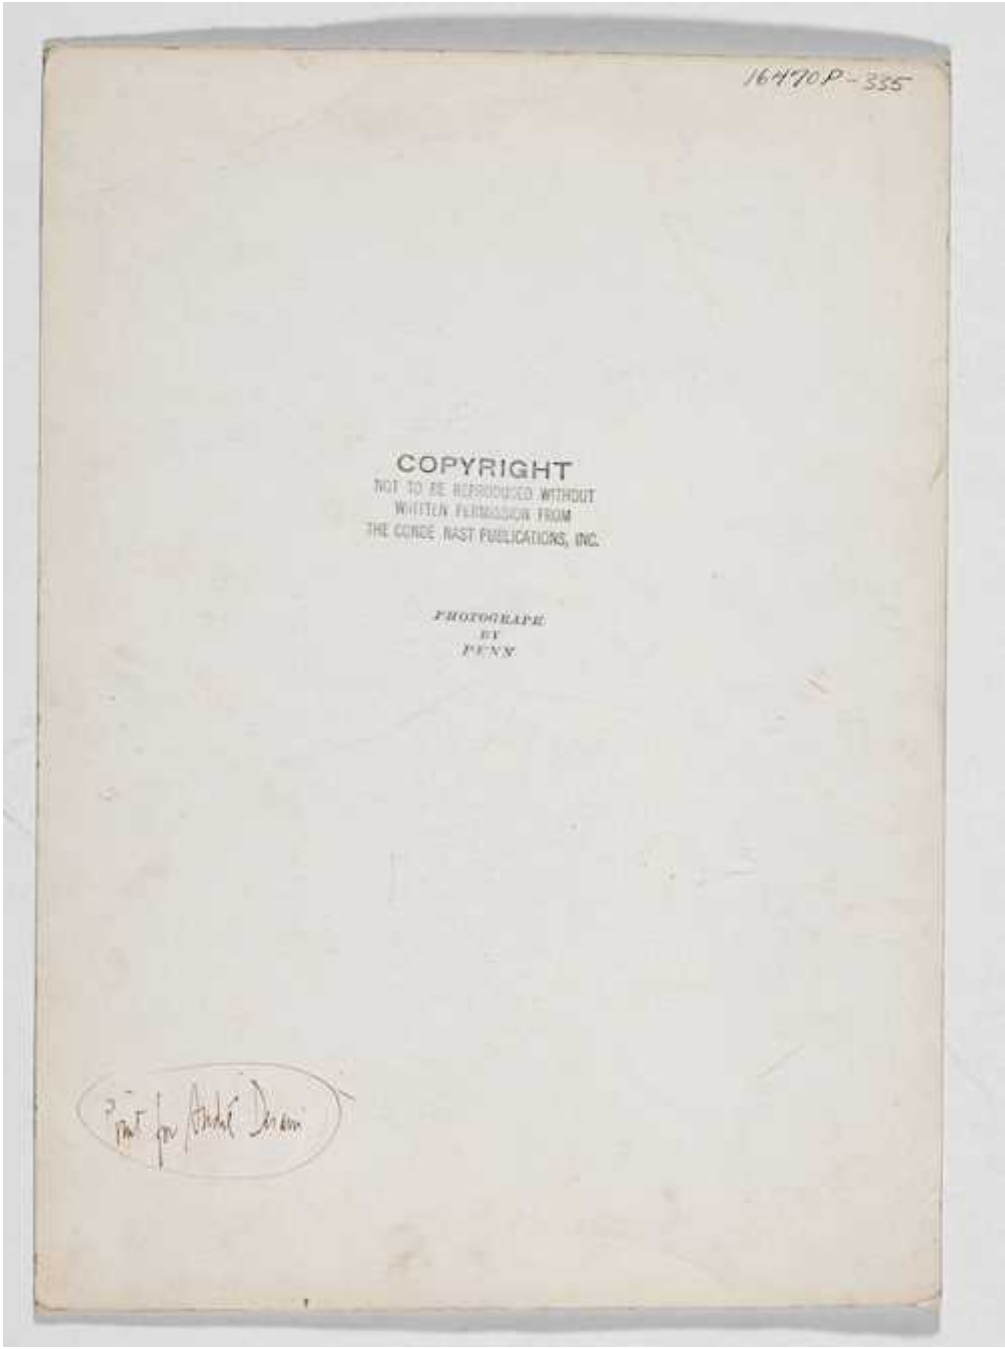

Fully signed and dated below the image on the mount. The verso with handwritten dedication "Print for André Derain", photographer's stamp and Condé Nast copyright stamp as well as handwritten inventory number.

Areas with scratch marks and pressure marks, creases in the corners, partly with light paper abrasion at the outermost edges, partly slightly loosened from the mount. The mount rubbed and bumped in the corners, browned and soiled. Overall well preserved.
